

Silvia Iranzo

She holds a PhD in Business and Finance, and in Commercial Expert and Economist of the State. She is an independent director of the listed company Indra Sistemas and an independent director of the Official Credit Institute (Instituto de Crédito Oficial). She is member of the Spanish Court of Arbitration. She is a lecturer in economics at the University College of Financial Studies (CUNEF) and the Institute of Stock Market Studies (IEB), She is professor at the IEB (Instituto de Estudios Bursátiles) and CUNEF (Colegio Universitario de Estudios Financieros). She is a jury member of the 'Príncipe de Asturias' Award of Social Sciences and she is the holder of the 'Grand Cross of the Order of Civil Merit' and of the 'Spanish Red Cross Gold Medal'.

She has been State Secretary for Trade and Chair of ICEX (Instituto Español de Comercio Exterior e Inversiones). She has been the ambassador of Spain in Belgium. She has been member of the Management Group of the Bank of Spain. She has been independent director of the technology consulting firm Tecnom, a director of IC-A. She has also been board director of Banco Exterior UK, CESCE, and Telefónica Internacional, amongst others.